THIS YEAR'S DISTINGUISHED PRESENTERS

1. Dr. Christoph Kaufmann

We are very fortunate to have such an accomplished authority on Trauma. Military Background: From 2nd Lieutenant, Medical Service Corps, US Army Reserves 1978 to Colonel, Medical Corps, U.S. Army (Retired) 2002. Teaching: University of Washington School of Medicine, Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences, Oregon Health and Science University, East Tennessee State University. Member of the ATLS Subcommittee, American College of Surgeons Subcommittee of Trauma, and many more.

2. Paul Trumpore

Paul is the Executive Director of the Tennessee Federation of Fire Chaplains, and Tennessee Emergency Services Chaplains Association. As we take care of everyone else, Paul is there to take care of us.

3. Keith Treadway, Wings Air Rescue Pilot

Keith is a retired Lt. Colonel for the Marine Corp. He is now a pilot and Base manager with Wings Air Rescue. He has an extensive flying career, and always puts safety first. Keith is lecturing on LZ preparation to insure safety for the ground crew and the flight team.

4. Jim "Doc" Jones, EMT-P Media Relations Officer

Jim is recently retired from Washington County / Johnson City EMS where he was responsible for all media relations. Jim uses his extensive experience to let you in on the ups and downs of the media. This is a very important issue in today's news hungry society.

5. Timothy Phalen, EMT-P

His EMS career started in Florida in 1978. Over the years Tim has developed a strong knowledge of Myocardial Disease and has educated thousands of EMS providers. Tim has lectured at the EMS EXPO, EMS today, as well as in Canada and 11 overseas countries.

6. Angie Bowen, RN BSN CPEN NREMT-P

Is the Regional Coordinator for Emergency Medical Services for children and Trauma Coordinator for East Tennessee Children's Hospital in Knoxville, TN.

7. Kirk Harris, NREMT-P EMT-P

(Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia & Virginia) Instructor/Coordinator
Kirk is the Director of Continuing Healthcare Education, EMT- Paramedic Program, Roane State Community College. He has extensive teaching experience. Kirk has also developed an excellent program, Wilderness Medicine for EMS providers.

8. Jason Whitehead, EMT-P

Jason is an EMT-P with Washington County / Johnson City EMS. He is a member of the Tennessee's Disaster Medical Assistant Team (DMAT). His team responded internationally for the first time when it was deployed to Haiti in the aftermath of it's tragic earthquake in February. Hear about and see some of their encounters while there.

9. Anita Ashby and Kim Nash, Wellmont One

Anita and Kim bring a wealth of knowledge and experience from Wellmont One. In recent years flight services have taken on a larger role in the pre hospital care setting for SW Virginia and NE Tennessee, so we are excited about this very timely lecture.

10. Chris Hitechew, Associate Professor Science Division NE State

Chris has been educating EMS professionals in North East Tennessee for several years. He consistently produces quality students ready for the street.

11. Katie Huffine, RN

Through the most tragic of losses that a parent could go through, Katie uses her life experience to give us a complete perspective on the death of a child.

12. Bishop Matthew Barber

Bishop Barber has become a regular speaker at our conference. He has his own congregation as well as being the Chaplain for WC JC EMS. He wraps up the conference every year by sending you off with a renewed energy and feeling about the work we do.
