Contact Hours awarded are recognized for renewal credit by the Tennessee Department of Health—Division of Emergency Medical Services

This year's conference will highlight this Spring's multi-county tornado events as seen by the local meteorologists, emergency management agency officials, and local responders.

How Much?

Before August 30, 2011
 $65/day or $100 for both days

After August 30th, 2011
 $80/day or $115 for both days

Student Rate

$45/day or $75 for both days
 With proper student ID

1 contact hour will be awarded for each hour attended (equivalent to 0.1 CEU)

The conference is hosted by Employee Education Association of Washington County-Johnson City EMS. The EEA is comprised of volunteers within WC/JC EMS. All proceeds are used for additional training of our Emergency Medical and Rescue Specialists.

The Holiday Inn of Johnson City, TN will once again be the site of this year's conference. Located just off of I-26 and North Roan Street, the Holiday Inn has special room of $75.00 rates for attendees. Contact the Holiday Inn at 423.282.4611 and tell them you are coming for the EMS/Rescue Conference for the discounted rate before August 18th. The special rates are not guaranteed after this date.
