

About the conference

The Northeast Tennessee Emergency Medical & Rescue Conference is noted by Washington County-Johnson City EMS. Our goal is to bring emergency trends and timely educational topics to the emergency medical and rescue providers across our multi-state region.

Contact hours are awarded by the State Office of Emergency Medical Services toward license renewal. We have sought approval from Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia.

PRE-Conference (Sept 4)

Pediatrics

The Pre-Conference sessions are an all-day pediatric ITLS class for participants to obtain their 8 hours of required pediatric training for license renewal.

I/C Update

The I/C Update meets state requirement for TN EMS Instructors to attend an annual update program as approved by the State Office of EMS.

Conference (Thursday/Friday)

Topics will cover professional trends, history, and the advancement of the profession with lessons learned from case studies and research.

Lunch

Conference fees include lunch at the hotel for everyone registered by August 1st.
